

GENERAL FAIR REGULATIONS

1. Fair management considers it favorable if persons report any gross mistreatment or extortion practice by any employee of the Fair, commercial vendors or concessionaires. Report any said practices to management immediately.
2. Open class competition is open to the world unless otherwise stated.
3. Big Sky Country State Fair reserves the final and absolute right to interpret all rules and regulations and settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with, or incident to the Fair.
4. Grounds are maintained and equipped to the best of ability and resources for public comfort.
5. A first aid station is located across from the carnival in case of accident or illness.
6. Fair management will carefully guard against extortion in any form practiced on patrons of the Fair. A violation of this rule shall cause forfeiture of contract and money paid and involves expulsion from the Fair under authority of Fair management.
7. Fair management reserves the right to direct and regulate the parking of all automobiles or other vehicles or conveyances within the Fairgrounds and to direct where they shall be driven. It may prohibit the running of automobiles in any section of the grounds whenever public safety demands it.
8. Fair management reserves the right to exclude from the Fairgrounds any person or persons whom they may deem undesirable, or who shall violate any of the rules laid down by the management, or who shall otherwise become offensive.
9. No roller blades, skateboards or bicycles allowed within Fairgrounds admission gates.
10. Under NO circumstances will dogs be allowed external to the barns except for canine competitions. Only livestock/canine/horse exhibitors are allowed to have dogs on the Fairgrounds, in camping areas, or in barns with the exception of trained service dogs.
11. In the event of conflict between General Fair Regulations and Exhibitor Rules, the latter will govern, subject to interpretation by management.
12. Big Sky Country State Fair is not liable for any printing errors in this publication.
